NARI

MASTER CERTIFIED REMODELER APPLICATION

Definition of Master Certified Remodeler: This designation recognizes Certified Remodelers that have demonstrated commitment to the remodeling industry through support of their local chapter, NARI National, and/or their local community. The MCR identifies Certified Remodelers that have withstood the test of time and continue to be successful within the industry and have agreed to uphold the “NARI Code of Ethics.”

How the Certification Process Works: Candidates must complete and submit this application for consideration by the NARI Certification Board. In addition to completing and submitting an application to qualify for the MCR certification, candidates must be a Certified Remodeler for a minimum of 10 consecutive years and hold another NARI certification (CKBR, GCP, CLC, UDCR). Candidates must have been involved with their local NARI chapter (committee, committee chair, board member, or officer) or NARI National (committee member, committee Chair, board member or officer) and/or involvement as a leader in the local community (city council member, school board, church officer, etc.) Candidates must submit a letter of recommendation from their chapter executive or chapter president or three letters of recommendation from recent clients.

Certification Renewal: Certifications are renewed annually. Renewals currently require the attainment of 10 hours of continuing education, participation in chapter/community service projects and the submission of the required and appropriate fees.

APPLICATION AFFIDAVIT

In making this application, I fully understand that it is an application only and does not guarantee certification. I agree to supply further information as determined by the NARI Certification Board. I further understand, and by my signature, attest that I now, and will in the future, adhere to the NARI Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. I further understand that any false statement or misrepresentation that I may make in the course of these proceedings and application may result in the revocation of this application and the issuance of a complaint of violation of said Ethics. Failure to adhere to these Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics is grounds for removal of my certification.

I understand that NARI reserves the right to update this application, the Code of Ethics, and Standards of Practice, and that it is my responsibility to be aware of NARI's current requirements. I further understand that I am obligated to inform NARI of changed circumstances that may materially affect my application. I further understand that it is my responsibility to provide NARI with any requested documentation in connection with this application.

I understand and agree that if I am certified following acceptance of this, such certification does not constitute NARI's warranty or guarantee of my fitness or competency to practices as a Remodeling Professional. If I am certified, I authorize NARI to include my name in a list of certified individuals and agree to use the MCR designation and related NARI trade names, trademarks, and logos only as permitted by NARI policies. I understand and agree that NARI may also use anonymous and aggregate application and examination data for statistical and research purposes.
