Winn has grown his remodeling business in the Washington DC Metropolitan area steadily over a period of twenty-three years. In that time, he has been featured in many articles on the remodeling industry and has been featured on national media outlets such as HGTV, The Washington Post, Forbes Magazine, Entrepreneur Magazine and the Washington Business Journal. In 2006, he was named one of Remodeling Magazines Big50 which names the 50 remodelers who best represent the industry by setting standards for professionalism and integrity, exemplary business practices and demonstrate an extraordinary impact on their communities or the industry at large.

Winn is an enthusiastic advocate of green remodeling for both consumers and for professionals. He writes extensively about green remodeling in industry publications and in 2008 he received his Green Certified Professional (GCP) designation by NARI. His company is actively involved in practicing and teaching green design and sustainable building practices.

Winn has also received his Certified Remodeling Carpenter (CRC) and Certified Remodeler (CR) designations by NARI.
