

December 13, 2017

It is our privilege to nominate NARI Central Virginia member Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. for the Peter H. Johnson Image Award

Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. contributes to the enhancement of the remodeling industry's image through their impressive resume of accomplishments.

- Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. encourages their employees to strive to achieve NARI certifications and holds four NARI professional designations: President Leo Lantz is a CR, CKBR and UDCP and Kimberly Mullins is a CRPM.
- Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. is a dedicated NARI member and actively participates in NARI events and programs. They were the recipient of NARI Central Virginia's first General Contractor of the Year Award in September of 2017.
- They have been a nominee for the Fred Case Entrepreneur Remodeler of the Year, was a Remodeling Magazine Big 50 Class of 2016, and has been voted Richmond's Best Remodeling Company by the Times-Dispatch reader's poll in 2015 and 2016.
- They won the NARI Guild Quality Customer Service Award in 2016 and the Guildmaster Award in 2017.
- They have been recognized by the Best of Houzz for Customer Service for the past four years running.

Besides their support of all things NARI on their website and by doing business with members, they have also actively participated in our workforce development and NARI on the Hill Fly-In events. President Leo Lantz led a petition for Henrico County to cap permit fees on renovation projects which in the past exceeded new construction permit fees. His efforts resulted in the county retroactively reimbursing permit fees to thirty-six local companies.

Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. also participates in community service. They sponsor the Henrico Education Foundation, Rebuilding Together Richmond and the ASK Childhood Cancer Foundation. Thru their involvement in a local recreation association, President Leo Lantz learned of a local family in need. The father died of cancer and the widow and two daughters desperately needed home renovations. This past Thanksgiving Leo Lantz Construction stepped in to provide those much-needed renovations and recruited other local civic groups to assist the family.

Most impressively, Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. engaged in NARI's new Accredited Remodeling Company program. Out of six thousand NARI remodeling companies across the country, Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. was the second to receive that impressive accreditation.

NARI Central Virginia is fortunate to have Leo Lantz Construction, Inc. as a member. Their efforts to promote the remodeling industry's image in our community is exemplary and it is our honor to nominate them for this prestigious award.

Respectfully Submitted by,
Angela Hubbard
on behalf of NARI Central Virginia